Organization back ground

African Relief Committee is an independent non-governmental organization (INGO) founded in the Sudan in 2006 by a group of African youth female and male . We work to help those people in need and hardship and save lives in of Africa practically in SUDAN.

What we do:

We help of vulnerable communities Refugees Returnees and IDPs by providing basic necessities such as a food security and Livelihood, Heath Care and Nutrition, child protection and Gender Based Violence, Shelter and emergency services, promoting peace building and peace coexisting among the communities and WASH services to which is sometimes hard to get in some areas in practically in SUDAN.

We help children in rural areas access education by building class rooms and recruiting teachers to teach how to read and write

We provide water by digging wells so that people and their livestock can drink and survive, 60% to 85% of the livestock in Sudan diminished due ongoing conflict in Darfur Region, people rely mainly on rain and therefore it become crucial to look at other sources of water African Relief Committee organization works hard to relief suffering, hunger, Thrust, illiteracy reducing violence and discrimination and diseases in the horn of Africa without regard to colour, race or creed and to provide aid in a compassionate and dignified manner .African Relief Committee Organization ultimate goal is to help people to help them self's and become independent of external assistance, we believe engaging people and making them participate to help others a key challenge which needs a lot of efforts and commitment and that is a great thing to do which always make us strive to continue doing what we are doing.

African Relief Committee Sudan (ARC) is a Sudanese national voluntary charitable humanitarian non-governmental organization founded by Darrian women and youth volunteers, linked with other countries youth members who work in humanitarian and development domain, they felt their duties towards their community that suffered from the Darfur Conflict which erupted in February 2003. Beliefs

ARC believes that:

- a) The lives of all human beings are of equal value and all have equal rights.
- b) In a world rich in resources poverty can be overcome.
- c) Poverty makes people more vulnerable to conflict and natural calamity (including climate change).
- d) People’s vulnerability to poverty and injustice is increased by inequality based on, for example, gender, race, ethnicity, class, caste and disability; women are especially disadvantaged.
- e) Overcoming poverty and injustice involves changing ideas and beliefs, institutions, policies, and practices.
- f) Technology and markets are part of lasting solutions to poverty; but people must be empowered to harness them.
- g) To overcome poverty and injustice people must take control of their own lives.
- h) Working together as global citizens we can build a just and safer world

Beliefs & Values

- Equal value of all human lives.
- Poverty can be overcome in a resource-rich world.

- Vulnerability is worsened by inequality (gender, race, ethnicity, disability).
- Empowerment is key to lasting solutions.
- Collaboration as global citizens builds a safer, just world.
- Values: Compassion, accountability, inclusiveness, professionalism, creativity, results-driven.

Our Values

Our value is having the compassion and commitment of helping others who are less fortunate and suffering , we believe that every help counts whether is big or a small because at the end it puts a smile on the face of a human being who are in need

Accountability

ARC believes that citizens have a right to hold governments and institutions accountable, to expect them to respect their rights and do what they say they will do. Likewise, we believe that non-governmental organizations should be accountable to the communities in which they work, to partner organizations, and to those from whom they receive support.

ARC strives to be:

- Trustworthy
- Accountable
- Collaborative
- Creative
- Professional
- Results-driven

Non-Allied (Social Inclusiveness)

ARC is not a religious, political or a commercial organization; we are a Western Sudanese national charity whose vision is to promote Peace, Development and Community

Empowerment for All amongst different communities facing poverty and suffering as a result of natural or man-made disasters. We are therefore fully committed on providing humanitarian, early recovery and development support to all communities irrespective of religion, gender, creed, political affiliation, tribe etc.

Community Empowerment and Commitment

ARC Organization Sudan believes that given timely & appropriate support all disaster affected communities have an inherent ability to pull themselves out of crises. Therefore, the approach adopted when implementing our programs is fully participatory; in which ideas from the affected communities form the basic foundation of our planning, design, implementation, monitoring and evaluation of all initiatives. We also expect full commitment to these values from our staff, partners and targeted beneficiaries.
